

SHOTGUN • COMBO

SHOTGUN • COMBO

BIOGRAPHY

This wittingly fresh new band was formed March 2014 in an attempt to penetrate the local music industry. Originally from different great bands, these four talented individuals collaborated and within 2 months was able to write 10 original songs and already played in various respectable bars in the metro.

Cris Genato leading on vocals, Brian Carlo Sta. Ana on lead guitar, Johnson Espadilla on bass guitar and Roel "Boyet" Robleado on the drums. Armed with their explosive music, gun-shot lyrics and witty antics they are busy touring around elsewhere to master their music and gain more exposures in the music scene.

A year and a half later, in the midst of their gigs, the band was confronted with the sad and sudden demise of their drummer Boyet Robleado. Still in mourning and confused as whether to stop or continue, they were faced with their greatest challenge yet... Finding a drummer heavy enough to fill in the shoes of their fallen comrade.

A couple of months of contemplation has led the band to pursue with their music. And as fate intervened, they found themselves a drummer in their own backyard. Polo Auxtero, a friend, a colleague, and bound by the same flames that drives them with the desire for greatness.

With their current line-up all set and ready to roll, they rocked stages out, gigs after gigs, earning them a bigger following and a hungrier urge for success. Determined and inspired, Shotgun Combo came back with a blast more heavier, louder and funkier than before.

SHOTGUN

COMBO

The essence of pure funk, jazz, hip hop, edm, rock/metal and from rhythmic vocals, groovy solid beats, that pounding bass slap and that funky guitar chunks that sounds like crystal shattering to million pieces and then combining them all and transforming into an epic growling choruses and hooks leaving you sucker-punched, emanates through Shotgun Combo's music.

Shotgun Combo has since the beginning in 2014 grown from a band into a phenomenon of funk and is now one of the most promising bands hailing from the north (QC).

With the release of their GARANTISABOG EP in 2015 they have, thanks to a "NU PHUNK" sound, catchy melodies and extra-ordinary live shows gained a steady and growing fanbase. With fearless versatility and originality the band has done radio guestings, band features, metro and out of town gigs over 100 live shows along with other prominent acts. They are currently promoting their single "Labahita" and will be releasing their music video soon.

Shotgun Combo is the new hungry armada that's got something for everyone, and won't stop until the whole world wiggles and slams along with their groove!

Shotgun Combo's "Labahita" Music Video coming out soon

SHOTGUN • COMBO

Contact:

Wes Fadri Arnedo / Cris Genato
09238317794 / 09266747747

Email:

briancarlo2000@yahoo.com

Facebook:

<https://www.facebook.com/shotguncombo>

Website:

<http://shotguncombo.yolasite.com/>